ಶ್ರೀ ಎಸ್. ನಿಜಲಿಂಗಪ್ಪ.—ಅವಶ್ಯಕತೆಯ ಮೇಲೆ.

Sri M. PALANIYAPPAN.—So far as the districts of Madras and Bombay which have merged in Mysore State are concerned, may I know whether the development schemes have been considered by the respective Governments or by this Government?

Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA.—They were considered by the respective Governments before integration.

Sri M. PALANIYAPPAN.—Has it come to the notice of Government that, if these schemes are to be taken up as they are, there will be no equal distribution of funds?

Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA. It is a matter of opinion. I will have it considered if the member comes and discusses it with me.

Sri S. S. KOLKEBAIL.—Is the Chief Minister aware that one of the complaints of many of the integrated areas was that the respective Governments have not put forward the claims of those areas properly to the Planning Commission? So, will Government recast the entire Five-Year Plan with reference to the entire State?

Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA.—I have also heard some complaints in this behalf. I will have them in view and if there is necessity, there will be reconsideration of the schemes.

Sri S. D. KOTHAWALE.—It is stated in the Governor's Address that the outlay on the Second Five-Year Plan will be Rs. 140 crores whereas in the answer it is stated that it will come to nearly Rs. 125 crores. Will Government be pleased to explain the incongruity?

Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA.—I think that in the list Hyderabad has not been mentioned. The balance refers to the Hyderabad State.

Sri A. V. NARASIMHA REDDY.—We are almost at the tail end of the first year of the Second Five-Year Plan period. May I know the progress that Government has been able to achieve during the first year of the Second Five-Year Plan?

Mr. SPEAKER.—It is outside the scope of the question.

Sri S. VIRUPAKSHIAH.—May I know whether Government are going to confine themselves to the approved schemes or whether they are going to reconsider the schemes with reference to areas other than the old Mysore State?

Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA.—Planning is a continuous process.

A.—Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA (Chief Minister).—

(a) Yes.

(b) A copy of the Press Note is placed on the table of the House.

(c) No.

(d) A broad time table as indicated in the Press Note is both advantageous to the public and conducive to the smooth disposal of the administrative business.

Sri B. P. KADAM.—May I know whether it will not cause much inconvenience to the public who are coming from far off places to wait here for a week to get an appointment?

Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA.—It is just to avoid inconvenience to them that I have given a fairly long time.

Sri B. P. KADAM.—What will be the position of the people who have urgent and important work with the Hon'ble the Chief Minister?

Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA.—If they write to me that the work is important, I will certainly be sympathetic.

Sri B. P. KADAM.—Is the Hon'ble the Chief Minister aware that the former Chief Minister of Bombay, Sri Morarji Desai, used to grant interviews to the public at all times at his residence, at the Council Hall and also at the Secretariat whenever he had time except when he was prevented by important engagements?

Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA.—I am not aware of that.

A.—Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA (Chief Minister).—

(a) Four.

(b) Bombay—1,016.
Hyderabad—976

Sri P. R. RAMAIA.—Sir, there has been some change in the question. My question was, what is the number of Judges fixed for the new High Court of Mysore after the formation of the new State? That question has been altered to suit the reply. My question is, what is the number of Judges that are required and are going to be appointed in the High Court of Mysore after the formation of the new State?

Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA.—The number is not final except that the maximum is ten.

Sri P. R. RAMAIA.—May I know when they are going to be appointed? Is it not already time that they should be appointed?

Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA.—I quite see the force of the question, but as various areas are coming in, it is taking time. I may assure the Hon'ble Member that matters will be moving quickly and that we will have the required number of Judges.

Sri P. R. RAMAIA.—Have the recommendations in respect of these new appointments been already sent?

Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA.—It is in the process of being sent.

Sri B. NARAYANASWAMY.—May I know whether the High Court has received all the records from Bombay and Hyderabad?

Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA.—The question must be addressed to the proper quarters.

Sri B. NARAYANASWAMY.—May I know which is the proper quarter?

Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA.—If my friend wants that answer, I want notice for that question.

Sri B. NARAYANASWAMY.—Has it come to the notice of Government that the records that have come from the Hyderabad State are mostly in Urdu?

Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA.—A large percentage is in Urdu.

Sri B. NARAYANASWAMY.—What has Government done to dispose of the Urdu records that have come to the Mysore High Court from the Hyderabad High Court?

(No reply)

Sri B. NARAYANASWAMY.—Has any arrangement been made or does Government propose to appoint a Judge who knows the Urdu language?

Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA.—Necessary steps will be taken.
